My dear Sir,

With reference to my note of the 7th March 1913 submitting, for His Highness' information, the order provisonally issued in the matter of the allowances to the officers who have accompanied H.H. the Yuvaraja to Europe, I am inclined to think on reconsideration that the outfit allowance of £30 should be raised to £45 (Rs.675) in the case of all the officers. ~~If His Highness approves, the order of the 4th March will be duly modified to this extent. The daily allowance to these officers may be fixed~~ at 1 £ for halts ~~and during passage inward~~ and outward.

The allowance paid in Bombay is higher than that proposed and H.H. the Yuvaraja's amount of the same being sanctioned to all these officers

If H.H. approves, the order of the 4th March will be modified in this respect.

D.O. No. 311

Comptroller's Office,

Bangalore, dated 3rd March 191 3.

My dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your D.O. Letter of the 22nd February 1913 stating that Messrs. P. Raghavendra Row, C.R. Reddy, and B. Mahomed Usman are to be included in the party accompanying His Highness the Yuvaraja during his trip to Europe and that it is proposed to give each of them First Class passage money, actual Railway fare, Outfit allowance at the rate of £30 and daily allowance. You have also been so kind as to enquire of my views as to what would be the proper daily allowance to pay.

2. In reply, I beg to state for your information that when Mr. Bhabha was deputed to Europe and America to study the system of primary and technical education a subsistence allowance of £1-1-0 a day was allowed to him. Mr. Strickland was, as stated in your letter, allowed a daily allowance of £1 a day when he was deputed to China. During the last trip of His Highness the Yuvaraja to Japan, the officers who went with him were allowed daily allowance at the following rates:

Col. Drake Brockman..	..Rs.5 a day
Mr. Mirza Mahomed Ismail	..Rs.4 a day
Mr. Ranganna ..	..Rs.4 a day
Mr. M.A. Singrachar..	..Rs.3 a day

In the Government of India, Officers of Scientific and Technical Departments when on Study Leave are ordinarily given lodging allowance at the rate of Six Shillings a day for the period spent in prosecuting a definite course of study at a recognised

institution

institution or in any definite tour of inspection of any special class of work. It is not easy, from these precedents, to arrive at any definite opinion as to what the proper rate of daily allowance should be in the case under consideration. But considering all circumstances I venture to think that a daily allowance of 10s. 6d. would be appropriate.

3. The question of incidence of pay and allowances of these officers has not been touched upon in your letter under reply. In my respectful opinion, there is hardly sufficient ground to debit these charges to the State Funds. Clear orders on this point are necessary for the guidance of the Comptroller's Office and for avoiding further correspondence. I would suggest, therefore, that with the permission of His Highness the Yuvaraja and the gracious sanction of His Highness the Maharaja, orders may kindly be issued to debit these charges from one of the Palace Personal Ledger accounts.

Yours sincerely,

In Government orders Nos.Fl.4951-4 and Fl. 6626-9 dated 4th March and 8th May 1913, respectively, the following allowances were sanctioned in the case of officers who accompanied His Highness the Yuvaraja on his European tour, viz:-

(i) Passage money, first class,

(ii) Actual Railway fare, and

(iii) Outfit allowances at £45 each.

The question of (i) daily allowance, (ii) deputation allowance and (iii) the incidence of charges, has now to be settled.

F. X and paper under circulation.

2. The Financial Secretary and Mr.Raghavendra Rao, who were consulted, have recorded their opinions in the papers placed on the file.

3. As regards the daily allowance, it is agreed on all hands that it is sufficient if an allowance of £1 per day is sanctioned in respect of each of these officers, excluding the period of voyage. This may be kindly sanctioned.

Paper under circulation.

4. Mr. Raghavendra Rao in his D.O. of the 18th November 1913 states that, though he has no repressentation to make on his own behalf, yet in the case of an officer like Mr. Mahamed Usman a deputation allowance may be sanctioned, as there will be indirect benefit to the State by the deputation.

Note of the Secy. X.

5. The Financial Secretary states that he is not aware of any circumstances justifying the grant of such allowance or any bonus to these officers.

6. I agree with the Financial Secretary that, in the circumstances, it is not necessary to grant a deputation allowance. But as regards daily allowance I agree with him and Mr.Raghavendra Rao that £1 a day is a fair rate and may be sanctioned. This allowance will not however be drawn in full for days on which the members of the party were found board and lodging at the expense of His Highness the Yuvaraja. In such cases the officer will be entitled only to half the daily allowance to be paid out of State Funds.

7. As regards the source from which the expenditure has to be met, the Financial Secretary has put forward the view of his Department that there are hardly sufficient grounds to charge the travelling expenses of the Government officers or any other members of the party to the State Funds but that the pay of the officers may be so charged in consideration of the fact that the officers may have acquired useful experience during their deputation, and also because considerable extra expenditure was not incurred in arranging for their regular duties.

Note of the Fil. Secy (X)

8. In my opinion, the whole of the travelling allowances of the Government Officers at the rates already sanctioned as well as the daily allowance at the rate £1 now proposed should be debited to the State Funds and credit given to His Highness the Yuvaraja's Personal Estate account to the extent of half the daily allowance for the days on which board and lodging were provided at His Highness's cost. The educative and other advantages to the State from a tour in Western Countries by His Highness the Yuvaraja justify in my opinion the payment of these allowances from State Funds.

9. I therefore solicit His Highness's sanction ,

(1) to fix the daily allowance for each Officer at £1 and

(2) to debit the entire charges as define above to the State Funds.
